HELPFUL TIPS FOR DISCOVERING THE AREA

All the places of interest listed here can be reached by car within approximately one hour.

Automobile Museum	Transportation vehicles dating back a hundred years with over 220 classic German cars covering a floor space of approx. 6000 m ² .
Bavarian Open Theatre	Open daily from March until October. Pre-booking is essential for large groups.
Chiemsee	Fraueninsel is situated in the middle of the Chiemsee Lake. A boat trip is necessary to reach the island. From here, one can visit the “Men’s Castle of Chiemsee” which was built in the time of King Ludwig II.
City Tour of Munich	Buses run from Munich’s main train station. The duration of these tours can range from one to two hours.
German Museum	With approximately 55.000 m ² floor space packed with technological artefacts from all eras, this has to be the biggest science museum in the world! Located in Munich.

Freilicht Museum Gentleiten	Bavarian architecture and farmhouses maintained in their original state. An ideal location to experience true Bavarian culture
Munich's Olympia Park	With its unique concentration and combination of event & leisure facilities and corresponding attractions, the Olympic Park has developed to become one of the most important centres of its kind. Tours include a roof climb with ropes & carabineers and bungee jumping into the stadium. A popular venue for cultural, social and religious events.
Tegernsee	Here is something for everyone; a visit to the „Klosterkirche“ (church), Bräustüberl (beerhall) or Gulbranson Museum, all of which are typically Bavarian. There is also the opportunity to travel to the top of Mount Wallberg by cable car (highest point within the Tegernsee valley). Shop in the town of Rottach-Egern. See the sights of Gmund, or Bad Wiessee with its new casino.
Trip to Kufstein via Bayerischzell	Beautiful scenery, typical Bavarian landscapes and buildings are all part of this trip. Kufstein lies in Tyrol, Austria, located along the river Inn near the border with Bavaria

We would like to remind you that all the attractions listed here are subject to change.
